Madison, Wisconsin -- Stephen P. Sinnott, United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin, announced that Larry L. Horton, DOB: 9/3/57, Janesville, Wisconsin, was sentenced by U.S. District Judge John C. Shabaz to 300 months in prison, to be followed by 8 years of supervised release, for possessing crack cocaine with intent to distribute.

Horton was arrested on October 19, 2004, after police searched his apartment and recovered crack cocaine, a scale, and other evidence indicating that he possessed the cocaine base with the intent to distribute it. Horton was indicted by a federal grand jury on June 22, 2005. He pleaded guilty on October 3, 2005.

The case against Horton was the result of an investigation conducted by the Janesville Police Department. Prosecution of this case has been handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Paul W. Connell.
